

Illinois Criminal Justice Information Authority

Lunch & Learn Series

PROCEDURAL JUSTICE IN POLICING

Expert speakers and discussion on procedural justice and policing and why it matters for police and communities

December 4, 2017 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM

Attendees will learn about procedural justice and legitimacy in policing and how the Chicago Police Department is employing their tenets to improve police-community relations

Speakers:

Jason Stamps, Associate Director, Center for Public Safety and Justice, The University of Illinois at Chicago

Justin Escamilla, Ph.D., Research Analyst, ICJIA

Marc Buslik, Commander, 19th District, Chicago Police Department

Robin Robinson, Special Adviser for Community Affairs, Chicago Police Department

Hosted by ICJIA

300 West Adams Street, 2nd Floor Building Conference Room, Chicago, IL

Register in person: <http://bit.ly/2zJZMVo>

Register for webinar: <http://bit.ly/2ici8qa>

Questions? Contact Jessica Reichert, Manager, ICJIA Center for Justice Research & Evaluation, Jessica.Reichert@Illinois.gov
www.icjia.state.il.us